Cloud Resilience Webinar Series

At NCC Group, we see over 95 per cent of our customers engaging in some form of digital transformation – and all of them are using cloud.

Cloud is evergreen. Always changing and opening up new opportunity but alongside opportunity also comes new threats.

Whilst the pace of change is already transforming countless industries, every new opportunity presents new challenges and vulnerabilities. This highlights the need for businesses to build the foundations to deliver resilience by becoming more secure in the cloud.

Join us for a three-part Cloud Resilience webinar series as we explore how businesses can transition from reactive recovery measures to perusing more secure, proactive and resilient continuity plans.

Part one - Becoming secure and resilient in the Cloud

Part two - Third-Party Outsourcing and Operational Resilience in the Cloud
